MANZIL MONDE

NADIRA HUSAIN

Welcome to the Artists' Colony Museum!

There's a lot to discover in the exhibition MANZIL MONDE - NADIRA HUSAIN. Keep an eye out for all the little things that can be seen in the next rooms.

Have fun!

First, please go down the stairs, past the vase and the wall with drawings, into the first big exhibition room. There you will see a large painting on the rear wall.

Task 1: Look closely at the painting "Migration Pride". What words can you find in it? Look at the ten words below and circle the words that are in the painting:

Hanau
Darmstadt
Bürokratie
Demonstration
Femme
Wall
Orientalism
Rassismus
Politik
Woman

At the end of your visit, you can find out more about these words on the answer sheet that you will receive at the ticket desk.

Task 2: At a demonstration, people can show what is important for them. They hold up signs that express their feelings.

Imagine you are going to a demonstration. What is important for you? What would you like to change? Write it on your sign and make sure to keep your message short:

Now please go down the stairs to the second big exhibition room.

Here you'll see many different kinds of art: colorful plastic chairs, curtains made of fabric, and paintings on the wall.

Task 3: The artworks in the lower room show many pictures and patterns. Find the following elements and then check the boxes:

Task 4: Look carefully at the image "An Elephant In Front of the Window, White Pretzel".

How many elephants can you see?

Check the box next to the correct number:

3

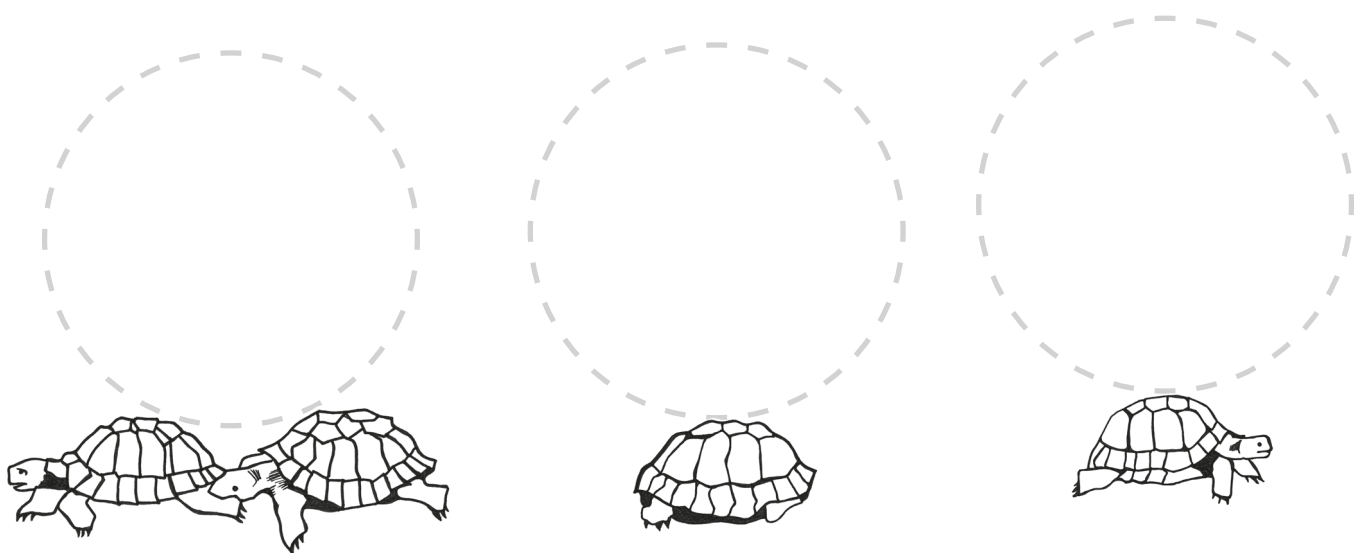

7

5

9

Task 5: There are also stickers stuck on the plastic chairs in this room. Design your own stickers here:

Who is Nadira Husain?

The artist Nadira Husain was born in Paris (France) in 1980. Her father's family comes from the city of Hyderabad (India). She studied art in Paris and Vancouver (Canada). Today she lives and works in Berlin (Germany), Paris (France), and Hyderabad (India). Nadira Husain creates paintings, collages, ceramics, and objects. In her work, she brings her various cultural influences together. Therefore, Indian figures and deities can be found next to comic figures. She is also committed to fighting racism and discrimination.

Task 6: If you have read the text closely, you'll know how many countries the artist works in today. Write down the number here:

Task 7: It's always exciting to get to know a new city. How many cities has your family lived in? Ask your parents where they have lived. Write down the names of the cities here:
